Article 1: Fields of Cooperation

Cooperation between the two units will be undertaken from the perspective of promoting academic and cultural ties. That cooperation will include educational and research activities in all the areas and disciplines offered at the two institutions.

Article 2: Forms of Cooperation

1. Both side agree that their cooperation will include, but not be limited to the following areas:
  - (i) The promotion of exchange of faculty members and/or researchers from both institutions;
  - (ii) Facilitation of the acceptance of faculty members and researchers from both institutions who are preparing for their doctoral dissertations;
  - (iii) Promotion of collaborative research and collaborative publication of research results by faculty members and researchers from both institutions;
  - (iv) Promotion of the exchange of students from both institutions;
  - (iv) Promotion of the exchange of reference data, publications, and academic information and literature.

- (v) Facilitation of the mutual exchange of administrative and secretarial personnel attached to the academic departments and colleges, research laboratories and centres, libraries, and assorted administrative bodies of each institution.
2. Except for those provisions set forth explicitly in this document, any conditions related to implementing the activities referred to in this Memorandum will be negotiated by both institutions and the concerned parties and agreed to in a written document in advance of commencing the activities.

Article 3: Exchange of Faculty Members and Researchers

1. Both sides will endeavour to facilitate visits by faculty members and researchers from the other. Visiting faculty members and researchers will comply with administrative procedures required by and the regulations of the host university.
2. Both sides may provide economic support for visiting faculty members or researchers from the other institution, but are not required to do so.
3. Both sides will provide assistance to visiting faculty members and researchers from the other university in securing living accommodations, but are not required to provide such accommodations.
4. Both sides will accord to visiting faculty members and researchers from the other institution, the use of research space, libraries and other facilities, opportunities to audit lectures free of charge, and to the extent possible other common courtesies generally granted to visiting scholars.

Article 4: Student Exchanges

1. Both sides will exchange postgraduate and undergraduate students.
2. Each institution shall be responsible for the choice of students participating in the exchange, subject to final approval by the host institution. The participating students from both institutions shall pay enrolment fee to their home institution and then study at the other institution without further charges for tuition fees. However, small fees may be charged for costs such as insurance, student unions and bodies, and the use of miscellaneous material such as photocopies, laboratory products, on the same basis as these are charged to local students.
3. Each institution shall help to arrange local accommodation for visiting students; provided, however, that cost of said local accommodation shall be the responsibility of and borne by the visiting students. Each participating student or his/her institution shall be solely responsible for travel arrangements and the costs thereof. The additional charges, as passport, visas, telephone services, books and any other kind of personal taxes will also be supported by the student.
4. Each side can help its students by providing specific scholarships, and each institution will require participating students to maintain their own medical/health insurance to provide coverage while participating in a student exchange and all students shall be required to provide evidence of such insurance to the host institution.
